

Edgar Cahn, PhD, JD Distinguished Professor of Law, UDC School of Law, Founder, TimeBanks USA, Ashoka Fellow. Co-Founder of the National Legal Services program as part of the War on Poverty, co-founder, the Antioch School of Law (now the UDC School of Law).

Cahn is regarded as a founder of poverty law, a pioneer in creating clinical legal education, the founder of a global TimeBanking movement, and a social justice innovator undertaking to incorporate system change in legal education. and inject co-production into service delivery and community development. Former speechwriter for Robert Kennedy; and the recipient of the 2013 District of Columbia Commission on Human Rights Humanitarian Award for his lifetime of work on behalf of lower income and marginalized populations.

Dr. Cahn speaks and writes on social and economic justice, including Hunger, U.S.A.: a report with an introductory comment by Robert F. Kennedy; Our Brother's Keeper: The Indian in White America; Citizen Participation: Effecting Community Change; Time Dollars: The New Currency that Enables Americans to Turn Their Hidden Resource - Time - into Personal Security & Community Renewal; No More Throwaway People: The Coproduction Imperative.