

Organization	Name and Role	Age	Profile	Type of Engagement	Sector
Academy for Systems Change	Board of Directors: Hal Hamilton, Peter Senge, Leanne Grillo	60+	Organization dedicated to developing systems level change approaches	Interview by video conference, email, vision refinement review and advice	System Thinking
Michigan State University	Dr. Laura Schmidt, Professor Aaron McKim, Extension	40		Interview and systems leadership assessment tools and ANR curriculum framework	Education and Food Systems
Kumu	Jeff Mohr, CEO	30-40	Complex systems Kumu network cofounder	Email commitment to give students free access	Systems Thinking
Waters Center for Systems Thinking	Sheri Marlin, Chief Learning Officer	60+	Sheri Marlin, M.Ed. writes, speaks and collaborates with others to apply systems thinking in real-world contexts. She has taught preschool through graduate school and has worked as a building principal and district curriculum specialist.	Interview by phone, vision refinement review, commitment to support teachers with tools and CRAFT with assessment	Systems Thinking
Windsor Central Supervisory Union	Principal: Garon Smail; Superintendent : Sherry Sousa; Horticulture Assistant: Christine Frohloff; Food	30-60	These stakeholders represent the Windsor Central school district's commitment to supporting a food systems pathway	Key contributors	Education and Nutrition Service Director: Gretchen Czaja; Director of Curriculum: Jen Stainton EdD

Windsor Central Supervisory Union	Students: Erica Kurash, Sophie Leggett,	16-18	Students from Environmental Science classes who have an interest in building out this pathway	Meeting participation, interviews, application development.	Education
National Park Service	Deputy Superintendent : Christina Marts; Chief of Interpretation: Stephanie Kyriazis; Natural Resources Manager: Steve Mortillo	35-50	National Park Service employees deeply committed to active stewardship, cultivating the next generation of stewards, and community-based partnerships.	Vision building, interviews.	Education
Wolfe's Neck Center for Agriculture and the Environment	Joe Grady, Senior Director of Programs	40-50	Coordinates programming and educational initiatives for this sustainable coastal farm.	Key Contributor	Environment, Culture, Education
Sustainable Food Lab	Elizabeth Reeves, Senior Program Director, Agriculture and the Environment	30-40	Elizabeth directs the Food Lab's efforts to develop landscape level collaboration for sustainable agriculture in large-scale grain and livestock systems.	Key Contributor	Environment, Food Systems
Community Parent and Green Mountain Foundation	Jason Drebitko	40-50	Assists with organizations reaching their full visionary potential	Key Contributor	Innovation, Business, Environment

Change the World Kids	Karen Ganey, Facilitator	30-40	Teen-run non-profit rooted in humanitarian and conservation service, both locally and globally.	Key Contributor	Culture, Environment
Billings Farm and Museum	Jen Flaster, Director of Development; David Simmons, Executive Director	60-70	The historic Billings Farm, a fully-operational dairy farm that features educational exhibits and interactive programs that immerse visitors and school children in the evolution of farm work and technology over the past century.	Interviews, planning	Culture