

Welcome To LawMaster

LawMaster is designed to provide you with much of the legal framework you will need for your business. but it is not a complete substitute for sound legal advice.

Many of the questions it will cover are those your lawyer would ask you eg. What will be your business name? This might seem a simple question but if, for example, you want to have a company, you will find that some countries restrict the words you can use, additionally you need to avoid infringing someone else's trademark.

LawMaster may enable dispute resolution between members without lawyers too.

LawMaster can't make decisions for you but hopefully can lead you to the right places to allow you to make informed decisions, and keep a record of them.
