International Network for Forgiveness and Reconciliation:

Addressed to:
200 Organizations / institutions

Aimed to:
Improve their capacities and stimulate creativity for forgiveness by reconciliation

Achieved by the following strategic activities:

1. Diagnose, self-evaluate and identify capabilities for forgiveness and reconciliation
2. Conceptual and methodological strengthening based on citizen forgiveness and a culture of reconciliation.
3. Each organization builds its own work plan for the development and application of pedagogical approaches for forgiveness and reconciliation.
4. Virtual and face-to-face support – Monitoring and evaluation exercises for continued measurement and improvement

Achieved by the following strategic activities:

- Social organizations
- NGOs
- Faith based organizations (FBO)
- Governmental Institutions
- Education institutions
- Improve human resources.
- Strengthen social and community work, including the reconciliation processes.
- Encourage potential alliances, work expansion and impact.

Focused on solving the problem:
Generalized revenge’s culture and the political economy of hate