Chapters allow the OpenIDEO community members to connect with their local community, create, browse and attend events, access resources tailored to their local area, share inspirations, ideas, and questions, and get help or help others in their pursuit of social and environmental change.

While IDEO provides the online access for Chapters, Chapters are generally community-managed by Organizers. As such, while Users may find information about and RSVP to attend Chapter events on the Site, IDEO does not organize any activity or event under any individual Chapter. If you create an event and submit it to an Organizer, the Organizer has the discretion to approve or reject your event. For more information on the criteria Organizers may consider, please refer to this page. If you have any questions about Chapters or events, please contact your local Chapter Organizer or sshigeoka@ideo.com.

Organizers may delete any reportedly offensive content related to a Chapter or event at their discretion. Finally, IDEO does not assess or guarantee the quality or safety of any events or activities organized under any particular Chapter and your decision to participate in any Chapter is entirely at your own risk.

If you create an event you may be granted access to the names and email addresses of users who RSVP for your event as well as their comments and information related to their posts and previously attended events. You agree not to use this information for any reason other than to organize the event and to notify attendees of any changes or updates to the event. Violation of this provision may cause IDEO to suspend your access to or permanently ban you from the Site.

All trademarks, service marks, and trade names are proprietary to IDEO or its affiliates or Challenge Sponsors and/or third party licensors.

It shall be your own responsibility to ensure that any content from the Contribution you wish to use or develop is suitable for your specific requirements.

While IDEO endeavors to ensure that this Site is available at all times, IDEO and its Designees shall not be liable if, for any reason, this Site is unavailable at any time or for any period.

'Report' is available for every comment, Contribution and My Profile and allows any User to point out content, Contributions, postings or messages that the User regards as offensive or damaging and allows IDEO to decide the course of action. IDEO, in consultation with a Designee as necessary, has the right to remove content it considers offensive to Users, and/or suspend a User's registration.

Should three Users report the same content, Contributions, postings or messages as offensive or damaging, such content, Contribution, posting or message will be immediately "unpublished" from the Site and IDEO will contact the User and decide the course of action as above, including removing the content it considers offensive or republishing such content in the event it determines it is not.

An email address is provided at the end of this TOU for questions about this TOU, the Privacy & Cookie Policy and the DMCA Procedure.

You will receive email messages (the “Notifications”) from the Site to the email address in your My Profile for the purpose of (i) informing you of your and other User’s activities relating to Challenges that you are following, and (ii) sending you an email informing you of new Challenges and other related matters. 11. Digital Millennium Copyright Act (“DMCA”) Procedure

Infringement Notification Procedures

It is IDEO’s policy to respond to notices of alleged infringement that comply with the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. In addition, IDEO will promptly terminate without notice the accounts of Users that are determined by IDEO to be “repeat infringers.” A repeat infringer is a User who has been notified by IDEO of infringing activity violations more than twice and/or who has had a User submission removed from an IDEO Site more than twice.

To file a copyright infringement notification with us, you will need to send a written communication that sets forth the items specified below (please consult your legal counsel or see Section 512(c)(3) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act to confirm these requirements):

A physical or electronic signature of a person authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed.

Identification of the copyrighted work claimed to have been infringed, or, if multiple copyrighted works at a single online site are covered by a single notification, a representative list of such works at that site.

Identification of the content that is claimed to be infringing or to be the subject of infringing activity and that is to be removed or access to which is to be disabled, and information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to locate the content. Providing URLs in the notice is the best way to help us locate content quickly.

Information reasonably sufficient to permit the service provider to contact the complaining party, such as an address, telephone number, and, if available, an electronic mail address at which the complaining party may be contacted.

A statement that the complaining party has a good faith belief that use of the content in the manner complained of is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law (for example, "I am under the good faith belief that the use of the copyrighted content that is identified herein is not authorized by the copyright owner, its agent, or the law.").

A statement that the information in the notification is accurate, and under penalty of perjury, that the complaining party is authorized to act on behalf of the owner of an exclusive right that is allegedly infringed (for example, "I swear, under penalty of perjury, that the information in this notification is accurate and that I am the copyright owner, or authorized to act on behalf of the copyright owner, of the copyright(s) that is (are) allegedly infringed by the aforementioned content.").

To expedite our ability to process your request, such written notice should be sent to our designated copyright agent via email at copyright@ideo.com or via regular mail to the following address:

IDEO LP
Attn: Legal Group (DMCA Notification)
150 Forest Avenue
Palo Alto, CA 94301

For clarity, only DMCA notices should go to the IDEO designated copyright agent. Any other feedback, comments, requests for technical support or other communications should be directed to IDEO through hello@openideo.com. You acknowledge that if you fail to comply with all of the requirements of this section, your DMCA notice may not be valid.

Please note that under Section 512(f) any person who materially misrepresents that content or activity is infringing may be subject to liability for damages (including costs and attorneys' fees). Please also note that the information provided in this legal notice may be forwarded to the person who provided the allegedly infringing content.

Counter-Notification Procedures

The process for counter-notifications is governed by Section 512(g)(3) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act. To file a counter notification with us, you will need to send a written communication that sets forth the items specified below (please consult your legal counsel or see Section 512(g)(3) of the Digital Millennium Copyright Act to confirm these requirements):

A physical or electronic signature of the user.

Identification of the content that has been removed or to which access has been disabled and the location at which the content appeared before it was removed or access to it was disabled. Providing the specific URL(s) of the content that IDEO has removed or to which IDEO has disabled access is the best way to help us locate content quickly.

Your full name, address, telephone number, and email address, and the username of your IDEO account.

A statement that you consent to the jurisdiction of Federal District Court for the judicial district in which your address is located (or any judicial district in which IDEO may be found if your address is outside of the United States), and that you will accept service of process from the person who provided notification under subsection (c)(1)(C) or an agent of such person.

A statement under penalty of perjury that the subscriber has a good faith belief that the content was removed or disabled as a result of mistake or misidentification of the content to be removed or disabled (for example, "I swear, under penalty of perjury, that I have a good faith belief that the content was removed or disabled as a result of a mistake or misidentification of the content to be removed or disabled.").

Send the written communication to our designated copyright agent via email at copyright@ideo.com or via regular mail to the following address:

IDEO LP

Attn: Legal Group (DMCA Notification)

150 Forest Avenue

Palo Alto, CA 94301

Please note that under Section 512(f) of the Copyright Act, any person who Materially misrepresents that content or activity was removed or disabled by mistake or misidentification may be subject to liability. Accordingly, if you are not sure whether certain content infringes the rights of others, we suggest you consult your legal counsel.

What happens next?

After we receive your counter-notification, we will forward it to the party who submitted the original claim of copyright infringement. Please note that when we forward the counter-notification, it includes your personal information. By submitting a counter-notification, you consent to having your information revealed in this way.

After we send out the counter-notification, the claimant must then notify us within 10 days that he or she has filed an action seeking a court order to restrain you from engaging in infringing activity relating to the content on IDEO. If we receive such notification, we will be unable to restore the content. If we do not receive such notification, we may reinstate the content.
