

Sign up to Take Action!

Nomi Network is inviting you to commit to take one Action for Freedom. Sign up and make a pledge to fight human trafficking through one of our initiatives.

Donate Your Birthday

Give your birthday away, raise awareness about human trafficking and make a lasting impact on the life of a survivor or woman at risk.

sponsorHER

We invite you to walk alongside our trainees as they grow in our programs and become financially independent through economic empowerment. Be a part of her success by donating monthly from $25, $50, $75, or $100, which will go towards training and job placement throughout the course of 1 and a half years. As a sponsor, you will receive a welcome packet with her story, a yearly progress report, and a letter from your sponsored trainee.

Nomi Network at your College

Invite Nomi Network to come to your school and raise awareness about human trafficking while sharing our products with your community. Sign up and receive our College Toolkit to find more ways to get Nomi Network involved on your campus.

Real Fathers - A Father's Day Challenge

Real Fathers is a challenge to men to send a message to bring an end to human trafficking.

Sign up to raise awareness and financial support to help fathers keep their daughters safe and free! Join other fathers the month of June to share about the issue of trafficking with their networks and start a personal campaign page to show your support.

Run a Road Race

You and a team of runners can join our Road Race Team by registering to run for races on behalf of Nomi Network.

Fundraise to help support our programs in India and Cambodia. Raise awareness about modern day slavery. Recruit additional teammates to run with you for encouragement and accountability.

Cycling For Change

You and a team of bikers can join us at the Cycling for Change Bike-A-Thon coming this October 2017.

This race takes you along the beautiful and scenic gold coast of Bayville, Long Island. Each stride you take helps to empower women in India and Cambodia.
